EXPORT

Export | VAT

Exports to third (i. e. non-EU) countries will be exempt from VAT, and so will be exports made by companies from other EU member states if they state their VAT identification number. Persons who have bought an item at auction and export it as personal luggage to any third country will be refunded the VAT as soon as the the form certifying the exportation and the exporter's identity has been returned to the auctioneer.

Export from the EU

The export to countries outside the European Community is subject to the restrictions of the European Agreement for the Protection of Cultural Heritage from 1993 and the Unesco conventions from 1970. Proof of lawful export at the customs is obligatory if the overall value is € 1.000 or more. For preparing the documents of proof we will charge at least € 35.

Art work that are older than 50 years and exceed the following values need an additional permit by the State Ministry of Culture:

- Paintings with a value of € 150.000 or more
- Water colours, gouaches and pastels with a value of € 30.000 or more
- Sculptures with a value of € 50.000 or more
- Antiques with a value of € 50.000 or more

Export within the EU

The new Act to Protect German Cultural Property against Removal (Kulturschutzgesetz, hereafter KGSG) has come into effect on August 6th, 2016 also for exports into other EU Countries. Art work that are older than 75 years and exceed the following values need a permit by the State Ministry of Culture:

- Paintings with a value of € 300.000 or more
- Water colours, gouaches and pastels with a value of € 100.000 or more
- Sculptures with a value of € 100.000 or more
- Antiques with a value of € 100.000 or more

E N G E L Kunstauktionen will apply for the export license at the State Ministry of Culture which according to the KGSG shall be approved within 10 days. If you have further Questions, please contact Guido Ottenberg (info@engel-kunst.com; phone +49 (261) 914 3751).

Cites

For Export of items - protected by the Convention of International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora - outside the EU contract area a permission according to CITES regulations is necessary. We point out that such a permission is usually not given.
